

This project is dedicated to the memory of:

Joannes Rucinski and Aniela Wlazlo, who left their villages in Poland, traveled alone, third class to America, met here, married, put up a new house on Bristol Street, raised a family, and quietly lived there the rest of their lives.